

Celyn Polocrosse Club

Pony Club Polocrosse Camp

13th – 14th August 2015

Rake Lane, Backford, Cheshire

Celyn Polocrosse Club are hosting a pre-PC Championships training camp at their Cheshire grounds close to Cholmondeley Castle. This event is open to all Pony Club members, with the aim of preparing teams and individuals for the Pony Club Polocrosse Championships.

Training will be carried out by UKCC coaches, led by Tom Simkin (Pony Club Polocrosse Chief Coach and UKPA Chief Coach). Tack checks will be carried out at the start of the camp to ensure that everyone has the correct attire for the Championships.

Breakfast, lunch and tea will be provided on Wednesday and Thursday, with just breakfast on Friday morning. Please make sure any special dietary requirements are noted on your booking form. There will be toilets and horse water on site, but no showers. However, showers will be available once you arrive at the Cholmondeley site on Friday.

Overnight accommodation is on site with horses in your own electric pens. First Aider cover will be on site. Racquets may be borrowed from the club. Hay bales can be purchased if required.

Training will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, before we move over to the Championships at Cholmondeley on Friday morning.

Depending on numbers, we may also be able to run a UKPA section for parents/siblings of PC players. Please contact Anna Tarbuck (secretary@celynpolox.co.uk) if you would be interested in taking part as a UKPA member.

Cost £75 for the full camp or £40 per day

Meal-only tickets are available at £15 per day
(must be booked and paid for in advance)

Timetable:

Tuesday:	5pm – Campsite open for campers
Wednesday:	Training (schedule will be sent out the week before)
Thursday:	Training
Friday:	All playing at PC Champs move over to Cholmondeley
Saturday-Sunday:	PC Championships!

There will also be instruction on how to Field Marshal and goal judge for parents etc.
