

AREA 14 AH Teaching Programme

Run by Sue Stevenson and Nikki Forbes

Come and join your fellow PC friends in the comfort of your home to prepare for your AH test. If you are planning on taking your AH test this year and are already working towards it - we can help you establish a clear understanding of the requirements of each Unit and provide you the motivation to study. These online sessions are designed to support your practical learning and enhance your understanding in a friendly environment with full coverage of the AH Syllabus – focusing on the theory behind the practical with use of video's and demonstrations as well as specialist speakers, exam candidates and AH assessors.

It is vital if you are intending on taking the exam this year that you are already well on your way with your studies and are gaining the practical experience on competition yards to develop the very high standard, depth of knowledge and confidence required for this level.

Cost: £45 for each block of 4 lessons - Payment required on booking. (Each block can be booked separately and there is no commitment to complete all 4 blocks of lessons).

These online lessons will take place weekly on a Wednesday at 7pm for 1 ½ hours. The aim will be to start at the end of February and finish mid-June. There will also be 2 full day practical training days that will be planned in for April / May time.

The AH exam will be arranged for the beginning of July 2021.

The sessions will be recorded, so if you cannot make it 'live' I can email you the recording to watch in your own time meaning you won't miss out on any of the content.

To allow maximum engagement of learners group size will be restricted to 12 so don't delay in booking!

If you are interested in taking part or would like more information please message me via my Facebook page.

Sue Stevenson Equine Coach | Facebook

Bookings to be made via horse events